

INPUT PAIR

 Original text (O)

Antibiotics are medicines that kill bacteria or stop them from growing. They do not work against viruses.

 Simplified text (S)

Antibiotics are medicines. Bacteria are tiny living organisms that can cause infections. Antibiotics kill bacteria or slow their growth. They can cure colds and flu.

KEY-FACT EXTRACTION

Extract atomic facts

Decompose each text into minimal, independent claims

Original key facts (K_O)

- 1 Antibiotics are medicines.
- 2 Antibiotics kill bacteria or stop them from growing.
- 3 Antibiotics do not work against viruses.

Simplified key facts (K_S)

- 1 Antibiotics are medicines.
- 2 Bacteria are tiny living organisms that can cause infections.
- 3 Antibiotics kill bacteria or slow their growth.
- 4 Antibiotics can cure colds and flu.

ANNOTATION

Completeness (K_O → S)

Facts 1–2
Connected

Fact 3 “do not work against viruses” is omitted
Bad deletion

2 connected · 1 bad deletion

66.67%

Faithfulness (K_S → O)

Facts 1, 3
Connected

Fact 2 defines bacteria for the reader
Elaboration

Fact 4 says antibiotics cure colds and flu
Factual error

2 connected · 1 elaboration · 1 factual error

75%